Class of 2003

Class History

As we entered the halls in the fall of 2000, we were eager to leave our mark as the best at Southbridge High. First order of business was to meet our class advisors, Ms. Tashjian and Mr. Bishop and elect our class officers. We elected president, Sam Lazo; Vice President, Jason Cooper; Treasurer, Caitlin Bonadies; and lastly Secretary, Guida Marcucci. Upon our introduction into the school we began to plan for our future. Fundraisers and class dues put money into our treasury for future fun. Mr. Bishop and his handy whistle helped enforce our skit. Since we were the underdogs of the school, 10 Dalmations seemed appropriate for the Thanksgiving Skit. Unfortunately, senior Nick Boudreau deliberately pulled the plug on our wireless microphones and our skit became a silent movie. Also what other class in the history of SHS can claim to have a fight break out during the rally over a rock group, freshman! However, in the end we ended up winning the poster contest which led to other victories later on.

It was now sophomore year and once again officers were elected, President, Sam Lazo, Vice President Willy Rodriguez, Treasurer, Caitlin Bonadies, and Secretary, Guida Marcucci. Thanksgiving time rolled around and the theme of this year's rally was "Out of this World." Unfortunately, at that precise time the gym floor had to be redone and posters were eliminated. It would have been our second consecutive poster contest win. Oh, well. We all remember Nick Bastien shaving his head for his part as Coach Phipps in the E.T. skit. Also that year, the teachers drilled us with MCAS questions, so no one would be left out of the graduation line two years from now.

We were now halfway through our high school experience and officers were elected. Sam Lazo, Tatiana Savankham as our new Vice President, Caitlin Bonadies and Guida Marcucci were eager to lead. Our first order of business was to win the skit and poster contests. With "Dancing through the Decades" as our theme, "Grease" was our major attraction. In the end, we won the skit, and to no one's surprise, the poster contest. Our biggest endeavor was yet to come, the prom. Leicester Country Club was the place, black, silver, and white the colors, and our theme, "A Moment Like This". We all gave into Jamie Pena's choice of the squiggly candles as one of our favors. It had to be a good choice; it was one of the prettiest and greatest proms of all time. We ended the year with a get together at Bigelow Hollow and the biggest question of all- "What do we do with all of our money?"

Seniors- we are finally here. Well, we thought so. School started three weeks late due to a mol problem. When we finally did get here, we were told to start getting information together about college. So soon?, we needed to have class elections. We elected Sam Lazo, Tatiana Savankham, Caitlin Bonadies, and newcomer Christina Palmerino to lead the way. Our first order of business was to sell Entertainment Books for the fourth time. This time the money would go towards our senior trip. November came and Peter Pioneer was our theme for the rally. We won the rally and behind Mega Monroe the poster contest, AGAIN! January rolled around and Mr. Bishop and Ms. Tashjian started nagging us. For what- Money! Caps and gowns, trips, college applications- get it in!

Well our four years have come to an end. Next week is the Spirit of Boston, white water rafting in Maine, and on Sunday, graduation. Good luck to everyone and remember to always have that Pioneer Pride.

Margaret Yacavace
"Midge from the Bridge"

TEACHER OF THE YEAR
2003-2004

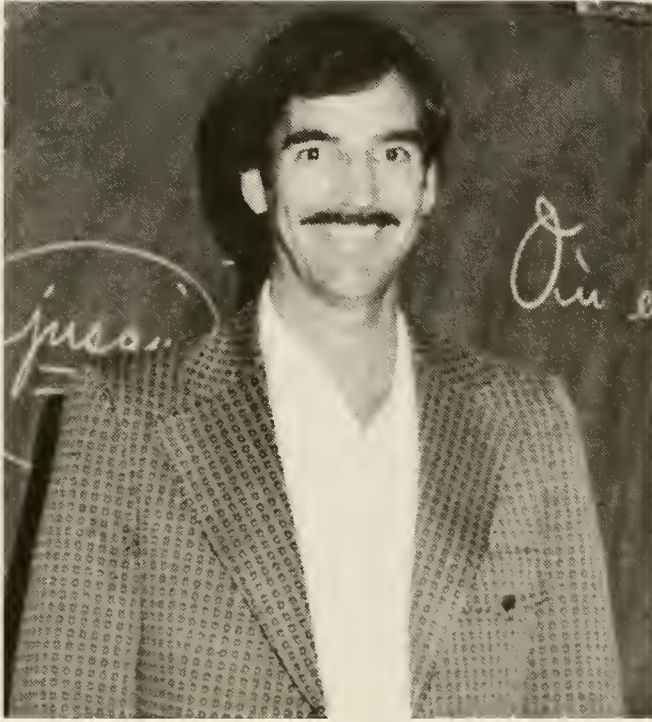

Margaret Yacavace teaches English to freshman and sophomores at Southbridge High School. She is an inspiration to her classes as she guides them through essay and story writing as well as knowledge of symbolism. Mrs. Yacavace's enthusiasm and love for English comes through in her lessons and infect her students, which is why she was selected as the 2003-2004 Southbridge High School Teacher of the Year.

Mrs. Yacavace was also voted "Most Genuine" in the 2003 Teacher of Virtue campaign for Knight Chevrolet and WXLO Radio. Who could forget "Midge from the Bridge"?

"Gotta work hard for the grades that she give's She's still she's still Midge from the Bridge.
Her kids know what she's all about
No matter where she goes she knows she's genuine"

To Bernard Dube, Neal LeBlanc, Stanley Lewandowski, Eleanor Tremblay, Al Thomas and Rene Morrissette...thank you.

Over the years you have inspired us, taught us to believe in ourselves, allowed us to be ourselves, all while filling our minds with knowledge and teaching us with passion. We will never forget the gifts you have given us, and this is our gift to you.

A teacher affects eternity; no one can tell where his or her influence stops
--Henry Adams

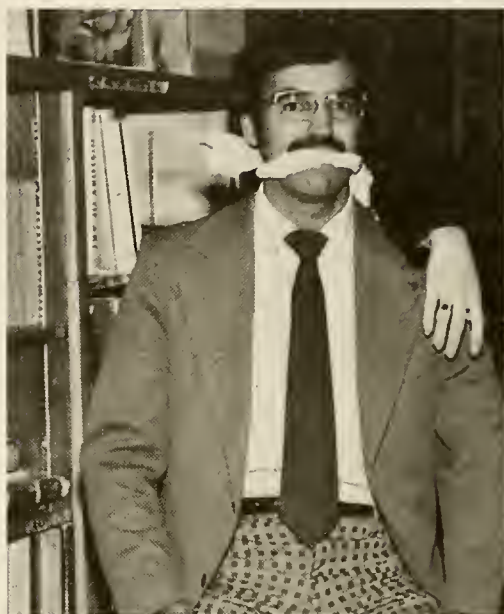

For taking us beyond our limits, helping us on the transition from nervous freshmen to excited seniors ready to explore our futures. You put your heart in everything you do, and we want to thank you.

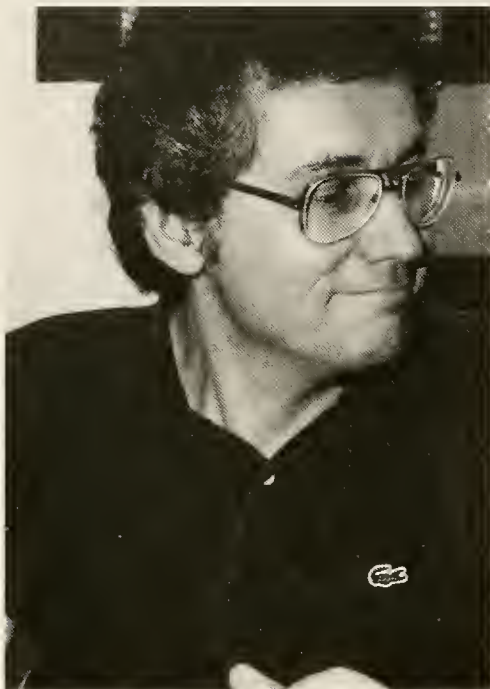

For teaching us the wonders of science while never forgetting the wonders of humor. You have a kind spirit and always keep a smile on your face, and we want to thank you.

For spreading your love and knowledge of the French language to us every day in the classroom and helping us on the path to fluency. You have also brought so many of us to new parts of the world for the first time and broadened our horizons. You are a true source of wisdom. Merci Beaucoup!

What the teacher is,
is more important than what he teaches
-Karl Menninger

You curbed our fears of college and taking that next big step, helped us choose what classes were best and always kept a good humor. You brought out the best in others because you have only the best to give, and we want to thank you.

From dissections to slides, you were there every step of the way. You filled our heads with knowledge and brought our understanding of biology to a new level. You gave your heart to teaching, and we want to thank you.

It is noble to teach oneself; it is still nobler to teach others
--Mark Twain

You taught us the classics and you helped us to write. You helped us to excel and never stopped believing in us. You are a friend and a mentor, and we want to thank you.

For all your hard work, dedication, and patience...

For completing our business section...

For allowing us to use your room for these past years...

For letting us interrupt our classes so we can finish the yearbook on time...

For lending advice when working with the computers...

For upgrading every computer so we have the best quality yearbook...

For being a friend to every one of us...

We thank you for every effort put into the Southbridge High School
yearbook.

Thank you from the SHS yearbook staff

Volume 42 of the Musket was produced by the Southbridge High School Yearbook Staff. Two hundred copies were printed by Josten's Printing & Publishing of Topeka, Kansas. Mr. Matthew Fenn was the area representative. The one hundred fifty-eight pages were printed on recycled paper. The yearbook advisors were Mr. Sergio Marcucci and Mr. David Buffum. The yearbook would not have been produced without the diligent work of Melissa Iozzo, Jackie Colognesi, Jenalee Johnson, Kim Lorange, Heather Sluhocki, Kat O' Malley (Rookie of the Year), Adam Noga (MVP), Mike Jenkins, Malysa Everheart, Britany Rybczyk, Luigi Santos, Cynthia Ramos, Schaniece Rodriguez, Shaundre Levy, and Angela Rawson.

Mr. John Soldani and the SHS Graphics Department designed the advertisement pages. Village Photo took the senior portraits. The principle photographers for the Musket were Mr. Sergio Marcucci, Kat O'Malley, and Adam Noga. Work on the Musket began in March of 2003 and has yet to end.

"Child of Mine"
Lyrics by Carol King

*Although you see the world different than me sometimes I can touch upon the wonders that you see.
All the new colors and pictures and design,
Oh sweet darlin'
So glad you are a child of mine.*

*You don't need directions,
You know which way to go.
I don't want to hold you back,
I just want to watch you grow.
You're the one who taught me
You don't have to look behind,
Oh sweet darlin'
So glad you are child of mine.
Child of mine, child of mine,
Oh sweet darlin',
So glad you are a child of mine.*

*Nobody's going to kill your dreams
Or tell you how to live your life.
There will always be people to make it hard for awhile,
But you'll change their heads
When they see you smile.*

*There have been times we both know That may not have been the best,
But you can make the times to come
Better than the rest.
I will know you will be honest
if you can't always be kind,
Oh sweet darlin'
So glad you are a child of mine.*

*With much love,
Dad and Judy
Mom and Mike
Jon, Bob, Trev and Jim Mem and Pep*

A Song A Dedication to Christina

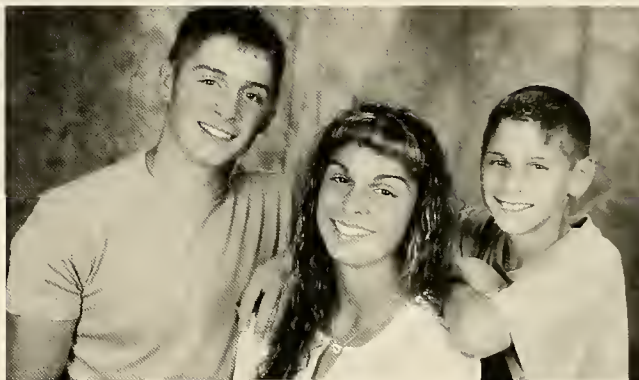

*You see little hands and little feet
And little arms and legs
You see little eyes and little ears
And hear the cries of life
As I hold you so close So close to my heart
share with the world
A child a new life*

*As I'm lying there and holding you I look up to stars
And I asked Him for the Gift of Faith
To help you through your life
And I asked Him for Guidance
And I asked him for Strength
And then I reached out to Thank Him
For my dream, my new child*

*A child of love, who's Blessed from Above A life full of laughter a life full of hope
A child of love a Gift from Above
I cherish each moment
And love you, with all my heart*

*Now the time has come to spread your wings
And learn to fly your way
But before you go I want you to know How proud I am of you each day
I've been Blessed with your kindness
I've been Blessed with your smile
And then I asked Him to guide you As you walk your way through life*

*Love,
TJ & Scott*
